

General Permission to Publish and Disclose Information

Dear Parent/Caregiver,

Thank you for taking the time to complete this note for the Australian Agricultural Centre.

We are seeking your permission to allow us to publish and/or disclose information about your child for the purposes of sharing his/her experiences at this event and the Australian Agricultural Centre.

This information may include the age, year and information regarding activities the child participated in at the Australian Agricultural Centre. Photographs, sound and visual recordings of your child, your child's work and expressions of opinion, such as in interactive media, might also be used as feedback to funding bodies or to promote this experience for future events.

The communications in which your child's information may be published or disclosed include, but are not limited to:

- Public websites of the Australian Agricultural Centre and their funding bodies
- Department of Education publications, including the school newsletter, annual school magazine and school report, promotional material published in print and electronically, including on the Department's websites
- Australian Agricultural Centre social media accounts on networks such as YouTube, Facebook and Instagram
- Local and metropolitan newspapers and magazines, and other media outlets

Parents should be aware that when information is published on public websites and social media channels, it can be discoverable online for several years, if not permanently. Search engines may also cache or retain copies of published information. Published information can also be linked to by third parties.

Please complete the permission slip and return it to the school by your excursion date.

Yours sincerely,

Jo Marshall
